Section 500.2            Transmittal of Application to Board of Zoning Appeals

Within seven (7) days after the receipt of a completed application for a conditional zoning certificate, the township zoning inspector shall transmit said application to the secretary of the board of zoning appeals or to the chairman of the board of zoning appeals, if the secretary is unavailable.

Section 501.0            Meeting of Board of Zoning Appeals

The chairman of the board of zoning appeals shall fix a reasonable time for a public hearing to consider the application for a conditional zoning certificate which shall commence not later than sixty (60) days from the date that said application was received by the chairman or secretary. The hearing on the application may be continued from day to day for good cause shown.

The board of zoning appeals shall give at least ten (10) days notice in writing to the parties in interest, give notice of such public hearing by one (1) publication in one (1) or more newspapers of general circulation in the county at least ten (10) days before the date of such hearing and decide the appeal within a reasonable time after it is submitted; notice of any continued public hearings shall be given at least by one (1) publication in one (1) or more newspapers of general circulation in the county and in writing to the parties in interest at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the date of such hearing. Written notice may be provided by personal delivery or ordinary mail.

Section 501.1            Action by Board of Zoning Appeals

- A. Hearings and decisions before the board of zoning appeals shall be conducted in accordance with section 1002.4 of this resolution.
- B. One (1) copy of the plans submitted with the application shall be returned to the applicant by the board of zoning appeals after said copy has been marked either approved or disapproved, dated, and attested to by the signature of the chairman or the secretary of the board of zoning appeals. One (1) copy of the plans so marked shall be retained by the board of zoning appeals for its permanent records.

Effective August 14, 2008

- C. The date of the signing of the written decision by the board of zoning appeals shall be the date of entry as provided in R.C. 2505.07 for purposes of appeal to the court of common pleas pursuant to R.C. Chapter 2506.

Section 502.0            Issuance of Conditional Zoning Certificate

Upon receiving written notice of the approval of an application for a conditional zoning certificate as provided by section 501.1, the zoning inspector shall issue a conditional zoning certificate to the applicant.

Section 503.0            General Conditions for Conditional Zoning Certificates

All conditional zoning certificates may contain the following conditions, in addition to those specifically required by other sections of this zoning resolution and those required by the board of zoning appeals.

- A. A conditional zoning certificate shall not be transferred or assigned.
- B. A conditional zoning certificate for any of the uses provided herein shall be valid for a period not to exceed five (5) years from the date of issuance.

Section 504.0            Revocation of Conditional Zoning Certificate

A conditional zoning certificate shall be revoked by the board of zoning appeals if:

- A. The conditional zoning certificate has been issued in error.
- B. The conditional zoning certificate was issued based upon a false statement by the applicant.
- C. The construction or use described in the conditional zoning certificate has not begun within six (6) months from the date of issuance or if construction has begun within six (6) months and said construction has not been completed within two (2) years from the date of issuance.
- D. The conditional use described therein is voluntarily discontinued for a period of two (2) years.
- E. Any of the conditions set forth in the conditional zoning certificate are violated.

Section 504.1            Procedure for Revocation of Conditional Zoning Certificate

The board of zoning appeals shall notify the holder of the conditional zoning certificate by certified mail of its intent to revoke said certificate and the holder's right to a hearing before the board, within thirty (30) days of the mailing of the notice, if the holder so requests. If the holder requests a hearing, the board shall set a time and place for the hearing and notify the holder. At the hearing, the holder may appear in person, by the holder's attorney or other representative, or the holder may present the holder's position in writing. The holder may present evidence and examine witnesses appearing for or against the holder. If no hearing is requested, the board may revoke the certificate without a hearing. The authority to revoke a certificate is in addition to any other means of zoning enforcement provided by law.

When a conditional zoning certificate has been declared revoked by the board of zoning appeals, written notice of its revocation shall be sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) to the holder and such notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the affected property as described in the conditional zoning certificate. Such notice shall set forth the reason(s) for the revocation of the conditional zoning certificate. Such notice shall also include a statement that all construction upon or use of the building, structure or land described in the conditional zoning certificate shall cease unless and until a new conditional zoning certificate has been issued.

Section 505.0            General Standards for Conditional Uses

In addition to the specific requirements for conditional uses specified in article IV of this resolution, the board of zoning appeals shall review the particular facts and circumstances of each proposed conditional use in terms of the following standards:

- A. The location, size and intensity of the proposed use shall be considered in relationship to the size and location of the site.
- B. The proposed roads and other means of ingress and egress are of adequate width and condition to accommodate expected vehicular traffic to be generated by the proposed use and are reasonably constructed to permit access by firefighting, police, ambulance and other safety vehicles and will not interfere with traffic on adjacent thoroughfares. A traffic impact study by a qualified traffic engineer may be required.
- C. The size and number of proposed off-street parking spaces and loading/unloading spaces (if applicable) are adequate and are in accordance with the provisions of article VI of this resolution.
- D. The type, size, location and number of proposed signs are in accordance with the provisions of article VII of this resolution.
- E. The proposed use will be compatible with the township land use plan.
- F. The proposed use will not be hazardous or disturbing to existing or future neighboring uses.
- G. The proposed use will be served adequately by essential public facilities including roads; police and fire protection, drainage structures, refuse disposal, water and sewage disposal facilities, and schools, or that the applicant shall be able to adequately provide such services. Proof of compliance with applicable codes and regulations pertaining to the protection of public health and safety including fire, sanitary sewage, water supply, erosion control, and stormwater runoff may be required.
- H. The proposed use will not create excessive additional requirements at public cost for public facilities and services and will not be detrimental to the economic welfare of the community.
- I. The proposed use will not involve uses, activities, processes, materials, equipment and conditions of operation that will be detrimental to any persons, property or the general welfare.

Effective August 14, 2008

J. The proposed use will not result in the destruction, loss or damage of a natural, scenic or historic feature of major importance.
